The Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum Pass Program allows libraries, community centers, schools (primary and secondary), and other nonprofit organizations to purchase a set of passes that provides discounted Museum admission for its constituents.

Each pass provides up to four (4) people with $5 admission per person, redeemable at the admission desk. Children under the age of 18 are not included in the admission count and are always admitted free.

Upon payment, institutions receive a set of dated passes, one pass per day from the start date, but excluding all Tuesdays, as well as Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day, Patriots' Day, and Independence Day. A small number of "mulligan" passes are also included.

The start date for the passes is the first day of the month following the receipt of payment.

Each institution is responsible for all passes. Lost, stolen, or misplaced passes cannot be replaced.

Distribution of passes must be free of charge. Institutions may not charge a fee for passes. Under no conditions may passes be resold.

Passes are valid only for general admission. They are not applicable toward discounts on special events, shopping, dining, concerts, lectures, or any other public programs.

Pass users must present the original, dated pass at the admission desk (general admission line) at the time of visit.

Misplaced or incorrectly distributed passes cannot be replaced or exchanged. The Museum will not accept a copy of a pass, a pass for a different date, or a letter from the institution in place of any pass, nor can we make alternate arrangements. Pass users who do not have the original, dated pass will not receive the discount.

Participation does not entitle the institution's staff to benefits reserved for Gardner Museum members.

Other restrictions may apply. For more information, call 617-566-5643 or email membership@isgm.org.
